

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The works I have consulted are far too numerous to be listed. I set out below details of the main commentaries and reference books I have used – in the order in which I have valued and made use of them.

The quotes (normally amended or abridged) which appear in my notes are not usually attributed; there are far too many. The reader who consults the commentaries and reference books listed will soon spot some of these – particularly in the first eight commentaries and the first reference book.

I have also drawn on material from several theological journals; principally Bibliotheca Sacra and Masters Seminary Journal – these, together with many others, are available on CD ('The Theological Journal Library') from 'galaxie.com'.
